YOU contribute to CONSERVATION through the FEDERAL EXCISE TAX

Bowhunter purchases equipment

Bowhunter purchases state hunting license/permits

Improved Recreational Opportunities for everyone

Programs and Projects are implemented
- Habitat restoration/enhancements
- Wildlife management areas
- Management of game and non-game species
- Public land access
- Hunter education
- Mentored hunting programs
- Learn-to-hunt workshops
- Marketing hunting opportunities
- Public shooting ranges

Federal Government collects taxes

Manufacturer pays Federal Excise Tax

US Fish and Wildlife Service allocates funds to state fish and wildlife agencies

State Fish and Wildlife Agencies manage resources

MORE THAN $1 BILLION towards Conservation from FET collected from archery taxes to date.

$48 MILLION collected in 2019.