

ATA 2025 Available Attendee Parking

Parking is available at and near the Indiana Convention Center. There are two options:

Option #1: On-Line Parking Passes for the Indiana Convention Center

Use this link to reserve your space. Once you click the link you will see six dates available for the 2025 ATA Show. You will need to purchase a pass for each day you will be in the lot.

Additional Details

1. Lot A address:
307 S. Missouri Street, Indianapolis, IN 46225
2. For overnight parking, please purchase a pass for each day. Each day is $20 for 24-hours. All taxes and fees are built into the price. At checkout the price will be the price listed.
3. The lot is staffed from 6am to 6pm. Access to your car is available 24/7.
4. Spaces will be guaranteed, however individual spaces will not be guaranteed.
5. Purchasers will receive a reservation confirmation which MUST be provided to lot attendants upon entry.
6. During the on-line process, you may log in with your Google or Apple email or check out as a Guest. All payments are secured and encrypted.

Pricing

1. ATA Lot A Standard - $20.00 per day
2. ATA Lot A Truck - $40 per day

Option #2: Daily Parking at Victory Field (Home of the Indianapolis Indians)

There are signs throughout the parking lot that have QR codes or a code to text in order to pay to park. Please follow the instructions on the signage, add your vehicle information, make the payment, and you will be confirmed. This process is similar to ParkMobile.

Additional Details

1. Victory Field parking address:
501 Maryland Street, Indianapolis, IN 46225
2. There is no overnight parking
3. Please do not park in any spots that are marked "reserved"
4. Access to your car is available 24/7
5. Spaces will be guaranteed, however individual spaces will not be guaranteed.
6. Once you have followed the QR Code and paid, your parking is confirmed.

Pricing

Daily parking ranges from $10 - $20 depending on other events downtown or if there is an event taking place at Victory Field. Currently, there are no planned events for the week of the ATA Show.
